

Native offline android app
Loading screen

Native offline android app
Main menu

The idea of the app its show user a interactive simulation of house power consumption classified by home appliances, Here user can select interior or exterior appliances then user press "simular consumo"

Native offline android app
Main menu

Based on appliance selection will simulate consumption by Kw and how much user have to pay, we will provide the excel sheet whit the equivalences